

Regeneration: designing the future

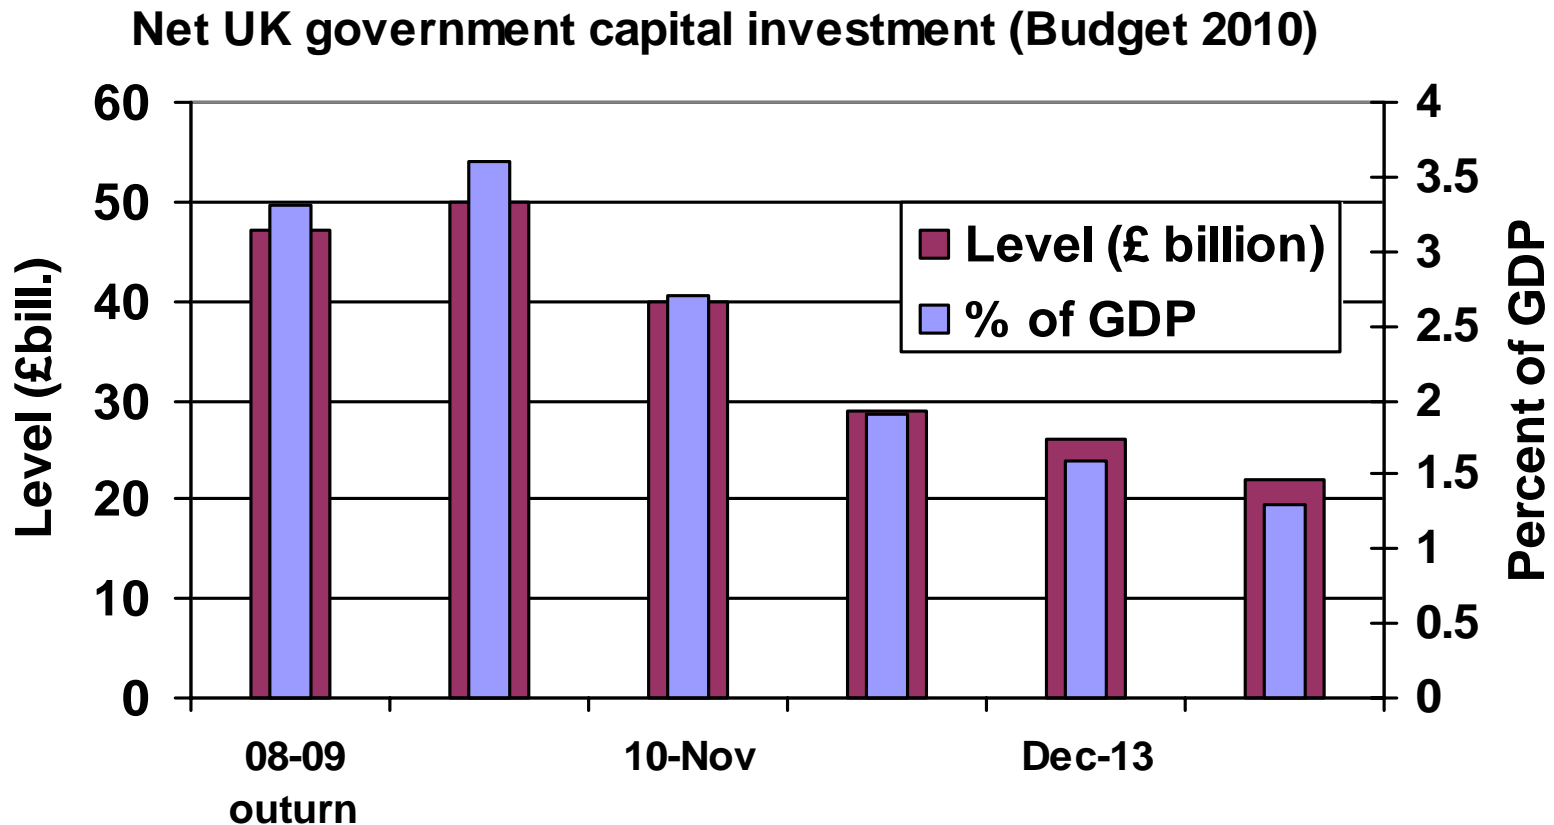

Mike Foulis

Director of Housing and Regeneration

A great deal has been achieved already

But the economic situation is challenging.
Private funding is limited, and public funding is becoming more constrained

Government has already responded, including through the Town Centre Regeneration Fund

We want to support you to deliver more and better regeneration in the future

