Chat Notes

Euan Leitch, SURF: If anyone wants to tweet about the workshop #SURFAwards you can find the speakers accounts @SURFscot @Street_League @moveonscotland @FareShareGWS @skillsdevscot

Euan Leitch, SURF: Feel free to put in any questions for our speakers in the chat.

Elaine Gibb, William Grant Foundation: Interested to hear a little more from John about Move On becoming trauma informed. What was behind this decision? What difference has doing this made for you in terms of how you support and work with young people? How have staff reacted to this?

Heather Reid, The Larder: Hi everyone, how have Street League and Move On (if you ever outsource) found sourcing placements over the last year? Have these been put on the back burner or have you had some success?

Adam Underwood, The Larder: will the slide deck be shared after the event?

Emma Scott, SURF: Slides will be on the SURF website

Jayne Chappell, SENscot: Thank you to SURF and all the speakers, really interesting and heartening to hear all the fantastic support being provided. Sorry I have to go now

Euan Leitch, SURF: Full details of applying for an award <https://www.surf.scot/2021-surf-awards-formally-open-for-applications/>

Euan Leitch, SURF : Details of the SURF Annual Conference <https://www.surf.scot/2021-surf-awards-formally-open-for-applications/>

Elaine Gibb, William Grant Foundation: Thanks - really interesting - good learning
